Choose your piano as the experts do...

The experts—performers, conductors, composers and teachers of great music—demand a piano of the highest standard of excellence. To earn a reputation as one of the great pianos of the world, a piano must win the approval of these experts. Few pianos today can meet this test; few are submitted to it. When so many outstanding leading professional musicians prefer and request a piano for performance and practice, it is proof that this piano has passed this highest test. It is indisputable testimony to the superior caliber of that piano. The voluntary endorsement by many of the world's foremost concert artists unquestionably establishes that one of today's leading pianos is the

County Farm Bureau Held Annual Fall Dinner Meeting

The Appomattox County Farm Bureau held its annual Fall dinner October 2, 1976 at the Appomattox County High School. A large number attended the meeting although it was a very rainy night.

The regular business meeting was conducted by President James Rosser. The County, State and National proposals were reported by Earl Pickett and the members present voted in favor of them.

President Rosser reminded the members that James Ford is now the service agent for the county. Members can purchase batteries, tires, hardware parts and freons, etc. from Mr. Ford.

The Women's Committee has been very active during the past year. It has sponsored displays, poster contests, dress revues, essay contests, among other things. Mrs. Susie Krantz announced the winners of the essay contest: "Patriotism and Responsibility" by Jonathan Pickett, son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Pickett of Pamplin, was first place winner. Second place winner was Vicki Glover, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Marvin A. Glover, Jr. of Pamplin.

The Women's Committee sponsored an apple pie contest at this dinner meeting. First place winner was Mrs. Edna Carson and second place winner was Mrs. Betty Ford.

There was on display a table of old farm implements. Also a table of farm grown products.

Guests for the meeting included Mr. Ben Wilkerson who reported on the services of the Farm Bureau and Mr. Benton Tendor with a report from the State Board Farm Bureau.

Entertainment for the evening was provided by Vicki Glover with her ventriloquist act with "Sidney" the snake puppet.
